America):

1 of 1 review helpful WOW By Bill Panczner Having been the first Curator of Earth Science at ASDM all I can say Peggy Larson did an outstanding job telling with both the written word and fine photographs the history of the Desert Museum For anyone who is planning a visit or just loves the Arizona Sonora Desert Museum this book is a must After my retiring from the Museum in the early 1980s my heart still remains in this Since 1952 Bill Carr and Arthur Pack the founders of the Arizona Sonora Desert Museum have inspired visitors to live in harmony with the natural world by fostering love appreciation and understanding of the Sonoran Desert When the museum opened it had only four employees Today it has more than 100 paid employees nearly 200 docents and close to 300 volunteers About 85 percent of the museum is outside where visitors can enjoy native and the endangered animals ex About the Author William Ascarza is the author of the Arcadia publication Tucson Mountains and is also the author of Zenith on the Horizon An Encyclopedic Look at the Tucson Mountains from A to Z Peggy Larson is the archivist for the Arizona Sonora Desert Muse
