4 of 4 review helpful ARIZONA HISTORY YOU CAN T DO WITHOUT By Bill D Knaack Leland J Hanchett Jr takes you back to the old west when the stage coach first rumbled on Arizona s dusty trails New roads were built between Prescott and Wickenburg Wickenburg and Phoenix and then Phoenix to Prescott via the Black Canyon to accommodate the new stage line Hanchett uses the actual transcripts from the Prescott Miner newspape This is the story of the men and women who kept the stages rolling from Prescott to Phoenix Arizona along both the Wickenburg and Black Canyon routes Life was never dull for these early pioneers as they confronted Indians and Sonoran bandits

as well as Knights of the Road This book carries the time line from early trail blazing through Indian depredations establishment of the stage lines and attacks by bandits right up to the stages eventual replacement by trains About the Author Leland J Hanchett Jr is a semi retired engineer inventor and entrprenuer who simply has a passion for Arizona history This is his fourth book on the subject
