1 of 1 review helpful Helpful for trip planning Nice overview of both North and South rims By AR I will preface this review by saying that we haven't taken our trip yet so I can't attest to the accuracy of the information. We have looked at three books about the Grand Canyon and liked this one because it thoroughly covered both the North and South rims. Others focused mostly on the touristy South rim which we plan to visit Revised January 2015. The local's guide to the Grand Canyon written by a local. Whether your interest in the Grand Canyon is in a quick look from a few of the rim viewpoints a week long whitewater trip on the Colorado River a stay in a lodge on the very edge of the canyon a walk along a rim trail camping in the rim forest or hiking down into the canyon this book is for you. Grand Canyon Guide has two major parts
