through Arizona to celebrate milestone birthdays. Although we have visited the state many times the photographs of the scenic beauty are second only to an up close and personal experience. From the Grand Canyon's natural beauty to the winds blowing through Tuzigoot to the exhibits of the Heard Museum to the historic Travel Arizona II focuses on historic cultural, scenic and otherwise fascinating sites of Arizona. This guidebook highlights the best that Arizona offers through the efforts of five veteran writers with nearly 150 years of exploring this state more than two dozen photographers and specialists in research, maps and book design. Brief bios of authors are in the book's introduction. Included are 14 trips in all regions of the state plus three chapters devoted to
