Award winning author Peter Aleshire and photographer Randy Prentice have spent decades exploring Arizona and its strange ephemeral vital rivers trying to define their essence in words and photographs. This long effort of love results in 80 stunning images and insightful beautifully written essays capturing the contradictions of the seven rivers and their feeder creeks and streams. From the Publisher One of Arizona Highways Special Scenic Collection books Desert Rivers is an excellent souvenir book for Arizonans and out of state travelers enamored with the state's rivers, streams, creeks and surrounding flora and fauna.
